

All Coalition Meeting 1 Notes
February 1st, 2024

Introduction:

What is CHIP?

- CHIP stands for Community Health Improvement Plan. It's a long-term plan to address public health needs, based on our community health assessment. The plan is updated every 3-5 years to account for changing needs in our objectives for action.
  - 2023-2028 Needs:
    - Access to Healthcare: Align decision making processes that will support and improve health outcomes for communities experiencing the disproportionate impact of health inequities.
    - Behavioral Health: Decrease rates of adolescent emotional distress and improve social connectedness.
    - Environmental Health: Increase access to healthier foods for community members and decrease barriers to affordable produce.

Department Co-Lead Introductions:

- Melanie Brooks: Access to Healthcare Lead
- Lindsay Fuss: Behavioral Health Lead
- Shoua Vang: Environmental Health Lead
